ST. LOUIS AD MEN TO CONVENTION

Left Today for Philadelphia on a Special Train.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 23.—At noon today 150 members of the Advertising Club of St. Louis accompanied by Mayor Kiel and a large number of merchants, left here on a special train over the Pennsylvania Railroad to attend the Convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World and to make a fight to secure the 1917 Convention for this city.

The special train was made up of ten passenger cars and two advertising cars loaded with souvenirs which will be distributed in cities along the route and in Philadelphia. A band and a number of well known entertainers also went along and concerts will be given in every place at which the train stops.

St. Louis is sending the largest delegation to the Convention and is confident of securing next year's big meeting.

Billy Sunday Comes to Town.

"Have you seen Billy Sunday in town?" This question was going the rounds yesterday, for the famous preacher was here two days—in the movies. A local theater has been showing a whole reel of Sunday in his Philadelphia meeting. Every important action of the baseball preacher's daily routine was shown from arriving at the Union Station to twirling the gospel to 30,000 persons in one gathering.

HOT WEATHER

Hot weather should not worry you, when you know you can get meat from your butcher that is cooled by "Refrigeration," not the old time unsanitary ice process. Try our lunch goods and note the freshness. Minced ham, boiled ham, veal loaf, Longhorn's cream cheese, dried beef, wienie, etc.
